The Virtual Lab & the Complete Digital Workflow

Dr. Christian Coachman

The new generation of Interdisciplinary software allows us to develop complete digital workflows, from Facial analysis and 3D smile design all the way to interdisciplinary planning and fabrication of all components, appliances, guides and restorations needed. The workflow creates a unique predictability and efficiency by digitally linking the initial mock-up to the provisionals and final restorations. This initial 3D project is also overlapped with Ortho 3D software's, CAD/CAM, guided surgery and orthognathic software creating a realistic and precise interdisciplinary treatment all developed in 1 platform.

Risk Assessment - Diagnosis Driven Treatment

Dr. Elizabeth Bakeman

The increasing amount of information that practitioners are required to assimilate when establishing a diagnosis and developing a treatment plan brings with it an increasing amount of complexity for both practitioners and their patients. Formulating treatment decisions based on what is truly important to the long-term success of treatment can at times be daunting. Striving to eliminate the weak links to long-term success helps to establish priorities when making treatment planning decisions. Patients need to understand the need for treatment as well as the importance of addressing parameters such as periodontal disease or functional concerns which are not currently impacting their lives, but could eventually impact treatment success.

PRACTICE SCORECARD:

MEASURE UP IN THE "NEW NORMAL"

with Lisa Philp, RDH (Transitions Group North America)

Friday
November 25th
2016

9am to 1pm

Henry Schein

138-4303 26 Street NE
Calgary, AB

The "new normal" has been driven by the changing landscape of dentistry: economic downturn, the increased number of dental providers, existing practitioners working longer, corporatization, public sophistication and urban centre saturation.

Now is not the time to be complacent, because the way we built practices in the past will not necessarily work today. It is essential for a practice to assess their operation using key metrics to measure against tried and true benchmarks of success.

Awareness is the first step.

This program will guide you through the areas to measure, including the health of the team, patient and business. You will be armed with the knowledge you need to create a plan that ensures the future is better and growth is happening.
